In placing in your hands the Imperial letter which accredits me in this capacity. I feel assured that you will see in the higher rank which it has pleased his Majesty the Emperor of Austria to bestow on his representative in this country, a token of the high regard entertained by my august soverign for you and this Republic, as well as a new proof of the desire entertained by his Imperial Majesty to strengthen the ties of friendship which bind the two countries.

For myself, I value the more high favors which I have received at the hands of my gracious sovereign, as I cannot refrain considering it as a sign that my endeavors to gain the good will and confidence of the Government to which I have the honor to be accredited have been graciously appreciated by my august sovereign.

THE PRESIDENT'S REPLY.

COUNT WYNENBRUCK: It always affords me pleasure to receive you, as well upon personal as upon public considerations. I felicitate you upon your advancement in the favor of your sovereign, and with pleasure accept that advancement as a new token of the constant good will and friendship of Austria to the United States.

STARTLING NEWS FROM TEXAS. Gen. Grant Kills President Johnson! The Clarkesville (Texas) Standard, 24t)

alt., has the following:

DEATH OF PRESIDENT JOHNSON.

The mails being discontinued, we are under the necessity of reciting from report an event of magnitute, perhaps pregnant with importance to the people of the South.

From several sources—one of them being Clem. Thompson, formorly a resident of our county, and just from Bardanelle, Arkanass, we learn that heast in Fort Smith and Little Rock papers, and in the Memphis Argan, accounts of the death of President Johnson, who was killed on the 6th instant, at Washington city, by Gen. Grant, in a personal altereation arising from Johnson's sawillingness to maintain in good, failt the terms of the convention estered into by Grant with Lee, and by Sherman with Johnson.

The event is so astounding, and the occurrence so extraordinary, of two Chief Magistrates of the United States carried off by violence, that we should hesitate to credit it, were it not that Mr. Thompson saw it in papers from three different localities—saw the papers in mourning, and heard the event discussed by Federal officers at Dardanello. The story is corroborated by other persons who have passed through town within the past week. The first reporters, however, were scarcely listened to, the story scemed who have passed through town within the past week. The first reporters, however, were scarcely listened to, the story scemed so improbable.

The killing is said to have occurred in a private room at the State Department, and without witnesses; and all we hear is, that Gen. Grant said he was compelled to kill him. As President Johnson was a man of strong will and denunciatory mode of expression, these may have brought on a physical contest, and in a measure compelled the result.

contest, and in a measure compelled the result.

If the report is true, as we suppose it is, his successor would be the President proviempore of the Senate, who is, as we are informed, (not being well posted about U. S. Government officials of late,) Mr. Collamor, of Vermont, formerly the Postmaster General under General Taylor, and long a Senator from Vermont. A perusal of the Senate debates prior to the war, has given us a favorable opinion of Mr. Collamer, though an avowed freesoliler. We cannot tell whether he has yielded to the later tendoncy to run freesolilam, into abolitionism. we hope not. freesollism, into abolitionism—we hope not. At all events the debates impressed us with At all events the debates impressed us with the belief that Mr. Collamer was a man of more than average mind—and that, though an opponent to slavery, he was a fair and just-minded opponent, acting from honora-ble conviction, and tempering his tendencies with moderation, a sense of patriotism, and the 4th of March next, we shall have hope of liberal treatment to the South, and cour

The Loss of the Ship Wm. Nelson.

The male cabin passengers are rapidly recovering from the effects of their injuries, but the females are badly burned about the arms and legs, and are not progressing as well.

C. O. Leach, Esq., United States Consul at St. John's, Newfoundland, furnished the following as the statement of the most intelligent of the saved passengers of the ship William Nelson:

iam Nelson:

On Monday, the 26th ult., the steerage passengers were all ordered above, and the ship was thoroughly washed and funigated. The fire broke out about 1 o'clock in the afternoon. The captain, with his family and the ship's crew, in two boats, left the ship about 3 p. m. Two other boats then attempted to leave, but these were injured and tempted to leave, but these were injured and swamped. Many of the saved passengers are

The trial of Dr. Pritchard, a Scotch surgeon, on the charge of having poisoned his wife, was progressing at Glasgow, and, from the motoriety the case has attained, great interest was evinced in the proceedings.

The Turret Ship Commission had reported against the construction of a vessel on Captain Cowper Coles' design, which they objected to chiefly on account of its being for a one-turret ship; and it is stated that they prefer two turrets combined with a fixed battery; so it will doubtless be decided to build the Hercules on Mr. Reed's plan, which has a turret at each end of the ship.

A startling balloon accident had happened in Ireland. Mr. Coswell's balloon, after having ascended from Belfast with ten people in the car, effected a perilous descent, owing to the valve at the top not acting properly. Eight of the stronauts succeeded in getting out, (some of them severely injured), when the balloon again ascended with two gentlemen still in the car, and nothing had since been heard of it.
